Course Description . . .

Students will learn to improve communication in one-on-one and small group situations. In this course, students will examine basic verbal and nonverbal elements affecting communication between individuals in family, peer group and work scenarios. Specific units of discussion include intrapersonal perspective, emotional intelligence, conflict resolution, intercultural messages, nonverbal communication and more.

General Education Outcomes . . .

Jackson Community College’s Board of Trustees has determined that all of our graduates should develop or enhance a variety of important skills while enrolled in courses.

The GEO (General Education Outcome) for this course is: -

GEO 2: Speak clearly, concisely, and intelligibly

Students will formulate and implement effective oral communication practices within various contexts.

Attendance . . .

- Your attendance and participation are essential. Class activities have proven to have a direct impact on your final grade and everyone is expected to participate. 10 points are subtracted for each class absence.
- Disrupting the class by coming in late and/or leaving early is not lightly accepted by your instructor. If you find this necessary, please try to let me know ahead of time. Tardiness or leaving early will subtract 3 points for each instance.
- Only a medical document presented on dr’s office/clinic letterhead will avoid reduction in points for the above instances.
- If you are absent, it is your responsibility to obtain the assignment for that class period. I will generally post assignments on JetNet within a day.
- Each student is expected to bring to each class: 1) pen or pencil, 2) writing paper, 3) course textbook.

Communication with the Instructor.....

- Outside of class, email is my means of corresponding with you.
Use the JC email, as that is the address I will use. If you don't know how to use JC email, ask me to show you.
Get in the habit of checking your JC email at least a couple of times a week
If you have a technical problem with JC email, call the JC Solution Center at 517-796-8639.
- Your responsibilities are to yourself as a student, and I've made clear in this syllabus how to successfully complete this course.
I will not come after you to find out what is wrong if you are absent, or miss turning in an assignment.
- I can't read your mind: Let me know if you need help, have questions, are confused, or want to talk. We can set up a time, if a face-to-face meeting is necessary, outside of class that works for both of us.
- Regarding emails sent to me: If you do not receive a reply from me, you can assume that I did not receive your email 😊! Try again.

Assignments are to be....

- Typed...and proofread, please! A hard copy is to be presented on the due date. Handwritten assignments are not accepted. 12 point, Times New Roman, double-spaced with 1 inch margins.
- I expect any written communication with me – whether hard copy or via email – to be grammatically correct, with proper punctuation and spelling.
- Evaluation of assignments will include the above.

Late Assignment Policy. . .

- Communication is key to your success in this class. Let me reiterate – if you are absent, it is your responsibility to check JetNet for any assignments.
If you are absent on an assignment due date, you are still expected to submit the assignment that day, via email, to avoid reduced credit.
- Any late assignments must be submitted within one week of the due date for reduced credit. Assignments beyond one week late will not be accepted. Tip: When emailing an assignment to me (or to anyone for that matter), it is highly advisable to save your file as "Rich Text" before attaching it. This way, it can be opened on any computer.

Quizzes and Exams . . .

- Quizzes and exams will cover material from the book, class lectures, and discussions.
- Quizzes will be open book, open notes with a time limit.
- Exams will be completed without book or notes.
- Quizzes and exams missed due to absence will be administered at the instructor's discretion. Any quizzes or exams taken late without preapproval by instructor or a written medical excuse will automatically be reduced by 10 points.

Class Courtesies . . .

Anything that distracts from class instruction cannot be tolerated out of consideration to all students...and in consideration of the time that your instructor takes in preparing for your class.

- Talking to your neighbor during instructor lectures or student speeches is, quite frankly, just rude.
- Any electronic devices need to be turned off during class.
- Texting or other cell phone use during class is not appropriate. If you must make a call or send a message, please quietly leave the room to do so.
- More than one 'warning' to an individual (during class) by the instructor regarding these guidelines will affect the participation grade.

Ethics . . .

- All work submitted must be your own. Failing to document sources in both oral and written assignments is considered plagiarism. Students found plagiarizing will be dealt with according to JC's policy on academic honesty.
- In this course it is unethical to use as your own, a speech, outline or paper, that has been written in whole or in part, by someone other than yourself. Doing so constitutes reasonable cause for course failure. Any student found plagiarizing will be dealt with according to JC's policy on academic honesty.
- Academic dishonesty in all forms is a serious offense and will result in a grade of "0" for the entire assignment.

Tutoring and other special needs . . .

- Tutors, and other services for academic success, can be found by calling The Center for Student Success 517.769.8415 or by stopping by the Center, located on the main floor of Bert Walker Hall. I can assist you to get in touch with help, so don't be afraid to ask me, your instructor.
- Students affected by the Americans with Disabilities Act should also contact the Center for Student Success as soon as possible to ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion.
