Documentation validating the circumstance will be required. Incomplete grades are not intended as a free pass out of class.

Academic Advising

It is important to contact a Center for Student Success professional prior to the start of the semester in order to receive accommodations in a timely manner. While we will make every effort to coordinate accommodations in a timely manner, failure to self-identify prior to the start of the semester may delay notification to instructors and timeliness of acquiring accommodations. Accommodations do not automatically carry over to the next semester. Please e-mail JCCSS@jccmi.edu or visit the Accommodations for Students with Disabilities web page

Student Responsibilities

Participation in discussion boards is mandatory and is an expectation built into this course. Every student will be expected to keep up with the reading and homework assignments. Be sure to complete all assigned homework on time. Your JC email and Remind will be the primary way I will communicate with you outside of class; however, I can be reached via Zoom and BBB. I suggest you check your JC email daily! If you do not use JC as your primary email, please have your JC email forwarded to your primary account so that you can get any class announcements. All assignments need to be posted to JetNet in the format specified or they will be given a zero. Late papers will be accepted one week after the due date for a deduction in points. You are still expected to post your work on time. (Email me right away if extenuating circumstances prevent this from happening).

Attendance- Participation Policy

For online sections

Just as in a traditional classroom course, regular class participation and keeping up on the reading and assignments is strongly correlated with survival in college. It is my recommendation that you plan to do your assignments and take your exams BEFORE the last day they are due. If problems occur, there is time to fix them before the deadline.

In compliance with Federal Title IV funding requirements, as well as college initiatives, I will be monitoring student participation on a regular basis and officially reporting student activity throughout the term to assure compliance with college policy and federal regulations. It is imperative that you log in to the course and actively participate within the first couple of days of the term to validate your enrollment in the course. After that, not actively participating in class may result in you being withdrawn from the course. Being withdrawn from a course can have an impact on financial aid, billing, athletic eligibility, and housing status. As a college student you are responsible for how your participation impacts your academic progress; the accountability lies with you.

Caveat

I retain the right to modify this syllabus and any of its terms as appropriate throughout the semester. This right, however, is limited to practical necessities (schedule, assignments, etc.) and legal or institutional requirements that supersede this syllabus as a contract. Student feedback will also be taken into consideration. Students will be notified of any change to the syllabus.

We recognize, support, and advocate for the sovereignty of Michigan's twelve federally recognized Indian nations, for historic Indigenous communities in Michigan, for Indigenous individuals and communities who live here now, and for those who were forcibly removed from their Homelands. By offering this Land Acknowledgement, we affirm Indigenous sovereignty and will work to hold Jackson College accountable to the needs of American Indian and Indigenous peoples.

Preferred Name:

- If you have a preferred first name and/or specific gender pronouns you would like me to use (whether the traditional pronouns of she/her/hers or he/him/his, or alternative, non-binary pronouns such as they/them/theirs, ey/em/eirs, or zie/zim/zirs), please let me know.

Student/Instructor Correspondence:

- Casually drafted e-mails will be deleted without a response! (Example: hey nina did we do anything today.) As a professional in an academic field, students will conduct themselves accordingly. This will also help you practice your formal writing skills.

Technology Policies

The use of technology is a requirement for this course. Please keep in mind that technical failures are not an excuse for late or missing work. Please use the following tips below to help avoid issues with technology.

- Do not procrastinate! You are given ample time to complete homework, and projects. Start early to avoid problems with technology.
- Save everything to a memory stick or to a cloud-based server such as Google Drive, Dropbox, or iCloud.
- Use a program that campus computers can open; use the “Save As” option and save your document in multiple versions – such as “Word Document” or “Rich Text Format” or Word 2007. You can save all work as the earlier version (Word 97-2003) or as .rtf (some formatting may be lost)
- E-mail a copy of your work to your JCC account or another internet-based e-mail service – either as an attachment or in the body of the e-mail, or both. Some formatting may be lost in the body of the e-mail, but it is better than nothing. This way, you can get a copy of the work wherever you can access the Internet.
