You should have an email in your JC inbox regarding BibliU access with a code – where you can access this textbook. Near the top of our course, click on the BibliU Textbook Access icon and follow the prompts to use your code to access the book. If you do not have it or have any issues obtaining BibliU Access/this textbook, please contact the JC Bookstore.

Course Description:

Students will learn to improve communication in one-on-one and small group situations. In this course, students will examine basic verbal and nonverbal elements affecting communication between individuals in family, peer group, and work contexts. Specific units of discussion include intrapersonal perspective, conflict resolution, self-disclosure, message generation, intercultural messages and nonverbal communication.

Technology:

Weekly access to a computer with internet access, equipment to record video segments and upload them to Jetnet, and technical equipment compatible with JC's online delivery service are necessary. If you need additional help with technology (such as your JC password, or difficulties accessing JetNet) please contact the JC Distance Learning Help Center at (517) 796-8639.

Course Objectives:

JCC's Board of Trustees has determined that all of our graduates should develop or enhance certain essential skills while enrolled here. These skills are called General Education Outcomes (GEOs). The GEO for this course is: GEO 2: Speak clearly, concisely and intelligibly

How things work:

This class is designed to be an interactive classroom experience - not an independent study. You can expect to spend 15+ hours per week on the course material. This includes reading the chapters from the text, responding to the discussion questions, completing homework assignments, as well as the quizzes/exams. Please note that this course is a highly condensed, extremely fast-paced 6-week course. You will be completing 15 weeks worth of work in less than half the time. Please note that you are responsible for making time to complete each assignment by the due date and time listed.

This course is divided into three units, each consisting of multiple chapters. For each chapter you are expected to:

- Read the entire chapter and get a good grasp of the content.
- Complete the activity assignment for that chapter.
- Complete the chapter quiz.
- For extra credit, you may also complete the discussion questions for each chapter.

Deadlines:

All assignments and exams are marked clearly on the course schedule and on JetNet. There will be NO EXCEPTIONS. Please plan accordingly. All assignments will be due at 11:55PM on the due date listed in the course schedule. All assignments in this course are due on one of three Sundays listed in the course schedule.

Activity Assignments:

Each chapter has an activity assignment. These will vary in format and other requirements and are designed so that you may apply the course content to your daily life.

Quizzes:

Each chapter has a quiz. Each quiz will consist of 10 multiple choice questions regarding the content from that chapter. The quiz will not be timed, and you will only have one attempt.

(Extra Credit) Discussion Questions:

Each chapter has a discussion question/post assignment available for extra credit points. You should thoughtfully and thoroughly answer each discussion question. You also must give a thoughtful response/comment to at least one other students' post on that same discussion question to earn the full points.

Exams:

Three examinations will be given throughout the term. Each exam will consist of 50 multiple choice questions over the chapters in that unit. You will have two hours to complete each exam once you begin. You will only receive one attempt for each exam.

Grading Criteria:

All assignments and discussion posts will be evaluated on content, grammar, spelling, depth, number and overall adherence to the requirements of the assignment.

Learning Accommodations:

Any student who requires special accommodations for learning, or who has a particular need is invited to share these concerns or requests with me as soon as possible.

Academic Honesty Policy:

We will adhere to the JCC policy on academic honesty. It states that all work must be done by the student whose name appears on the document and that all sources be correctly credited. If you have additional questions, please contact me directly.

Incomplete Policy:

In accordance with JC's policy, an Incomplete or "I" grade is only issued to students who have demonstrated good standing in the class and hold a passing grade at the time of an extenuating circumstance that precludes completion of the class. Documentation validating the circumstance may be required. Generally, the rule holds: No incomplete granted for this class.

Instructor availability:

You are welcome to work on course materials at any time. However, I will not be available 24/7. I do my best to respond to questions and grade submitted work within 24 hours during my work week (Monday - Friday). If you email me after noon on Friday, do not expect a reply before Monday. The best way to contact me is via JC email. If you have a number of questions or need some time to go through things, I am happy to schedule a call with you.

Class Climate:

It is my goal to facilitate an open, engaging, and comfortable classroom climate. My standards may be rigorous, but it is my desire to foster a relaxed and fun classroom environment. Please be mindful of the effect your words have on your fellow classmates. Any statement, joke, or gesture that disrespects, offends, or denigrates another on the basis of gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, age, or ability will not be tolerated.
