

Instructor: Denise Williams

Class: BUA 190 Spring 2022

As you are probably aware, the COVID-19 Virus has limited Jackson College's access to all students. In the following packet you will find the following:

- Completed Course pack for all chapters
- Please review and answer the learning objective questions, case studies, and complete the exercises for each chapter.
- Essay (Final Project)
- Final Exam

Please complete two chapters per week! I will also provide weekly instruction in Jpay each week!

The Jackson College instructors know that this may not be optimal, we are also confident that with your diligence and hard work, you can still be successful in this course. We believe that this will help set you up for success. Please know, we are working on options for the remaining exams and how those will be handled. We will be doing our best to help accommodate this very unique situation. Depending on how things progress with the COVID-19 virus, we hope to be back instructing soon!

Course Description

Why do some business succeed while others fail? How can you promote the growth and sustainability of your organization? And what is your role as a future business owner or manager in the overall success of your organization? This course will outline and describe the strategies that a company's managers pursue to have a major impact on the company's performance and compete in the dynamic global nature of today's organizations.

Students will explore the following topics as they gain an added understanding of strategy: strategic management, competition and competitive advantage, developing strategies, and implementing strategies.

Prerequisite(s)

CIS 095, ENG 085, and ENG 090

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Develop the accepted vocabulary and terminology of strategic management
- Understand the nature of competitive advantage as it applies to the global business
- Develop strategies to gain competitive advantage
- Describe the methods managers can use to implement strategic business decisions

Course Competency

Learn about the strategies involved in owning and managing a business. Specifically, research and develop a strategic analysis of a business to include an understanding of core business areas, definitions and terms, principles, and theories prevalent in the global enterprise.

Extras

You must have access to an Internet connected computer. You are also expected to have "backup computer" plans; at a friend's computer, a relative's computer, JC, or at a library. Establish computer plans in case your usual computer access is disrupted during the semester. The course will continue to move along regardless of whether your computer works or not. I provide instructional support, not computer support. It is your responsibility to establish and maintain technical connections. If your computer does not work for any period of time, you are expected to find a way to do the work. Do you need access to the Microsoft suite of products for your assignments? You have access with your JC email account!

- Navigate to office365.com
- Click "for home"
- In the upper right, log in with your JC email
- Use you JC email to log in. The page will take you to a new link where you can type in your JC email password
- Click "sign in"
- Now click "word" or "powerpoint" (whichever program you need)
- Once you are done with your assignment, you can "save as", and then upload your word document to the JetNet link

Grading Procedure

Grades and all relevant information are available to students via the course JetNet site. Item points, weighting, and assignment due dates are all listed on the site.

Exact due dates for assignments, tests, exams, etc. will be announced in class and are included on the course calendar. In addition, class participation will be measured by your level of engagement during class and/or via the JetNet discussion board. As applicable, it is expected that each student engage in classroom discussions and/or discussion forums. For the online discussion forums and when a question is posed (will be announced via the course announcements page), each student should respond to the initial question posted and respond to at least two classmate responses. Your response should promote the conversation, not simply state your agreement. Proper online etiquette and professional business communication is required.

FINAL GRADE

The grade points assigned are estimates and subject to modification. Your final grade will be based on the points you earn on quizzes, assignments, class preparation and participation.

Your final grade in our course is directly related to your amount of effort in our course. Historically speaking, students that are engaged, prepared, complete assignments on time, and put forth effort for each quiz and assignment have done well in our course. Thus, your final grade is dependent on you. In addition, it is up to each student to keep track of our course calendar and any missing assignments. Missing assignments can severely influence your final grade and this effect may not be "seen" until the midterm or the final grade (see comments above).

Grading Scale

GPA	GRADE RANGE
4.0	93 - 100%
3.5	88 - 92%
3.0	82 - 87%
2.5	76 - 81%
2.0	70 - 75%
1.5	64 - 69%
1.0	58 - 63%

0.5	52 - 57%
0.0	0 - 51%

Academic Honesty Policy

Academic Honesty is defined as ethical behavior that includes student production of their own work and not representing others' work as their own, by cheating or by helping others to do so.

Plagiarism is defined as the failure to give credit for the use of material from outside sources.

Plagiarism includes but is not limited to:

- Submitting other's work as your own
- Using data, illustrations, pictures, quotations, or paraphrases from other sources without adequate documentation
- Reusing significant, identical or nearly identical portions of one's own prior work without acknowledging that one is doing so or without citing this original work (self-plagiarism)

Cheating is defined as obtaining answers/material from an outside source without authorization.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Plagiarizing in any form
- Using notes/books/electronic material without authorization
- Copying
- Submitting others' work as your own or submitting your work for others
- Altering graded work
- Falsifying data
- Exhibiting other behaviors generally considered unethical
- Allowing your work to be submitted by others

Failure

Anyone caught cheating on an assignment or quiz will receive a zero for that task. If caught cheating more than once, the student will receive a zero for the class. All academic dishonesty violations will be reported to the Dean of Business and Human Services.

Course Management

It is the responsibility of each student to manage their progress through the course. If circumstances arise beyond the control of the student, it is imperative that the circumstances be communicated to the instructor. You should be monitoring your grade throughout the semester. Waiting until the final week or the day after the conclusion of our course is not the time to assess your overall performance. Finally, at the conclusion of our course it is unacceptable to ask for a "bump up" in your grade. If you monitor your own performance and do your best, a "bump up" is not required. Again, your success is up to you.

For course withdrawals, it is ultimately the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the course. Simply not attending class will not classify as a withdrawal. You should also contact your instructor when considering a withdrawal.

If you are unable to complete the course due to extenuating circumstances, please refer to your academic catalog for specific qualifications and details related to an "incomplete" grade.

Help

If you need help with a topic, start with your fellow classmates. Ask questions and learn from each other. If you still need help with a topic, please ask your instructor. I am here to help you and want you to succeed. Lastly, tutors (plus additional services for academic success) can be accessed by calling 796-8415 or by stopping by the Center for Student Success (see this link: <https://www.jccmi.edu/center-for-student-success/tutoring-center/>). Students requiring special assistance (including those affected by the Americans with Disabilities Act) should contact the Center for Student Success. This is the first step in acquiring the appropriate accommodations to facilitate your learning.

It is important to contact a Center for Student Success professional prior to the start of the semester in order to receive accommodations in a timely manner. While we will make every effort to coordinate accommodations in a timely manner, failure to self-identify prior to the start of the semester may delay notification to instructors and timeliness of acquiring accommodations. Accommodations do not automatically carry over to the next semester.

Student Responsibilities

- Follow the requirements in the Academic Honesty document posted in this class.
- Read assigned chapters before coming to class.
- Assignments will be due in accordance with the course calendar.
- Attend all classes and be on time. If you are absent you are still responsible for all information presented and for turning in any assignments that are due.
- The student is responsible for the material covered in a missed class. Notify your instructor in advance if you are going to miss a class and make arrangements to make up any missed work.
- Participate in class activities and discussions in a responsible and considerate manner. Student discussion and questioning is required.
- View the grade book weekly and JC email account weekly. Grade issues must be reconciled within the same week of grade posting. Waiting until the end of the semester will not result in a grade change for any reason.
- Points are earned for learning, not for effort or best intentions.
- As applicable, all assignment must be typed using Times New Roman or Arial typeface, either 11 or 12 font size, double spaced, with references properly cited.
- Appropriate business talk and written work (grammar, spelling and capitalization) are expected.

Attendance Policy

In compliance with Federal Title IV funding requirements, as well as college initiatives, reporting of student participation in classes will be recorded throughout the semester. Students identified as no longer participating will be dropped or administratively withdrawn from the class, and students identified as needing academic assistance will be contacted.

Classroom Policy

Be respectful of your instructor and your peers. This is a learning community – and we all will learn something – so be positive and encouraging of those around you. Any behavior considered being disruptive, disrespectful, inappropriate, or threatening will be addressed by the instructor and/or security and/or the Dean of Students. Consequences may involve deduction of points/grade and/or may include removal from class.

In addition, cell phones and other electronic communication devices are not to be used during class for any type of communication or social media. I reserve the right to temporarily pause class if you are on your device.

How To Contact Your Instructor

Send an email to WilliamsDenise02@jccmi.edu and if you want a reply it is necessary to:

1. Use your JC email so that I know the request actually came from you. I can not respond to emails that do not originate from your JC email;
2. Put the course name and section in the subject line and include a few words to describe your email (e.g. BUAXxx.xx – Assignment question);
3. Use a greeting that includes my name and sign with your name;
4. Be sure to include a specific question and/or a message with complete information;
5. Use proper business etiquette and terminology in all of your email communications (i.e., no jargon or “text-like” communication);

6. Respond to me when you receive the message to ensure the message was delivered and understood.

These are common communication practices that demonstrate your good human relations skills and offer you the opportunity to practice your newly develop business acumen. Our Business Advisory Group of business leaders in the community expects that you will have these abilities.

Tips!!

- It may be surprising to learn how much of student success depends directly upon you, the student.
- Generally speaking, students who have come to class, submitted homework ON TIME, and prepared for each week’s tests have generally done well in the class. This is not a guarantee, but your effort can significantly affect your final grade.
- Please read feedback offered for every assignment. The intent is to learn from your assignments and improve throughout the semester. If you do not read the feedback, you may be making the same mistakes and having points deducted.
- Do not wait until the last minute to submit work. If you wait until 11:00pm ET to start your quiz, work on your simulation, or complete your assignments and computer issues arise, you may be late in your submission. Remember, all late work will be penalized 50% regardless of reason. If you are able to complete your work early in the week, you can avoid the “it’s due tonight” stress. Please plan ahead now.
- Use spell check for all written assignments.
- Find a “study buddy.” Your “study buddy” will help to remind you of upcoming assignments and can serve as a class teammate to address ideas and concerns.
- We may not review every topic included in each chapter during our time together in the classroom. It is your responsibility to review the assigned readings to prepare for any quizzes and complete your assignments.
- Writing and reading make up a significant portion of our class, especially for the online version of BUA190. At times, talking and listening are replaced by reading and writing. If you do not like to read and find it difficult to write, this class, either in person or online, may not be for you.
- Remember that JetNet is where the class is actually located. JetNet is your personal study area with the e-text, study plan, and homework to help you study and be successful in class. Grading will occur in JetNet.
- Schedule a quiet place for class three (3) times each week as well as studying.
- Talk with friends/employers about business topics we study to reduce study time and memorization as well as increase retention.
- Due dates for all assignments are on the 7th day of each week by 11:59ET. Please plan ahead now.
- You will have assignments due in our JetNet course during week 1. This is a fast paced course with a significant amount of information... please don’t fall behind.

Grading Rubric

Grade	Evaluation
A	Student demonstrates full grasp of the subject area. Depth of answer is appropriate for type of question asked and necessary support and evidence is given for answer. Student shows excellent understanding of the material. High levels of analysis, synthesis and evaluations used. Answer is accurate, legible and organized for optimum communication and free of spelling and grammar mistakes.
B	Student demonstrates general understanding of the subject area but lacks advanced concepts. Student did not fully support answer with necessary facts and evidence but student shows a good understanding of the material. Moderate levels of analysis, synthesis and evaluations used. Answer is accurate with nominal level of errors in spelling, grammar, syntax or organization.

C	Student demonstrates peripheral knowledge of the subject but did not answer specific question. Student shows some understanding of the material but did not support answer with necessary facts and evidence. Significant level of errors in writing mechanics or organization.
D	Student's answer did not address question asked. Student made attempt at answer but missed the point of the question. Student's work meets bare minimum requirements in content and lacks some key understanding of the material. Document organization and/or mechanics are well below professional expectations.
F	Does not meet minimum requirements in content. Work shows little understanding of material. Grammar, structure and spelling are not on college level.

Caveat

The instructor reserves the right to amend this syllabus as deemed necessary and will communicate such amendment to the students in the course.
